MARCH 1, 2010

Dear Parents-

I am pleased to inform you that CCP has formed a partnership with the Half Moon Bay Library. We are excited to have Karen Choy visiting our center once a month. She will be bringing new and creative ideas to engage our children in literacy.

I would also like to thank Sally, Ian's mom for keeping up our lovely garden and Chris Rockey for being kind enough to come in and juggle for the children here at the center. The children had a wonderful time during President's Week.

- A reminder the center will be closed Friday March, 12th for an In-service Day.

“QUOTE OF THE MONTH”

“The best inheritance a parent can give his children is a few minutes of his time each day.”

Activities

Allison's Class

Allison's Class will be doing a variety of art projects. The children will be making leprechauns, shamrocks and rainbows. The children will be on a search for the pot of gold. Towards the end of the month the children will be making clay eggs and will have a chance to make and enjoy some bunny salad.

Fran's Class

Fran's Class is doing lots of exciting things this month. The children will be learning about weather conditions. She will be teaching the kids about recycling. They will be making green eggs and ham and even have a chance to make green pretzels. Karen Choy will also be visiting her class on the 9th of March.

Claudia's Class

Claudia's Class will be discussing the Solar System and shooting stars. In addition to making St. Patrick's Day projects her class will also be covering Mardi Gras. They will make enchiladas during club time and towards the end of the month the children will have a chance to dye eggs, and make baskets.
